National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere Names Local Student to 2015-2016 Youth Advisory Board Jenny Suwanmanee, Junior at East Chapel Hill High School, Named to National Advisory Board

Chapel Hill, NC. (June 22, 2015) — Carleen Wray, executive director of the National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE), has announced that Jenny Suwanmanee, a junior at East Chapel Hill High School, has been selected as one of ten high school students from across the country to serve on the 2015-2016 National SAVE Youth Advisory Board (YAB). Members of the board are meeting in Raleigh NC to participate in a National Youth Leadership Institute on July 16-19 2015 where they will be trained as presenters and spokespersons for the national organization. At the institute, YAB members will also plan the 2016 National Youth Summit to be held in Raleigh NC on March 12, 2016.

Jenny was born in Thailand and moved to the United States in 2006 and is fluent in English, Thai, Chinese, and Japanese. She is involved in multiple organizations that focus on helping others and the community such as Habitat for Humanity, the Ronald McDonald House, and the Elliot Woods Tutoring Program. Additionally, Jenny is on her school's softball and field hockey team.

Ms. Suwanmanee has been a member of SAVE for two years during which she has initiated and lead various club events. As a YABer, Jenny wishes to accomplish her goal of preventing the spread of violence, educating others on the important of violence prevention, and helping those in need if they ever end up in a situation involving violence.

Members of the YAB will develop their leadership skills through participation in training sessions, discussions of best practices for school violence prevention and the practice of educational activities for sharing with other SAVE students. They will create goals for the year as well as a proactive action plan to combat violence through the implementation of the three essential elements of SAVE: crime prevention, conflict management and service projects.

SAVE is a student-run, student-initiated public nonprofit violence prevention organization with over 2,000 chapters in 48 states and more than 230,000 members in elementary, middle, high schools, colleges and communities nationwide.

About the National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere:

SAVE started at West Charlotte High School in Charlotte, N.C. in 1989 following the tragic death of a student who was trying to break up a fight at an off-campus party. Students met first to console each other, then as an organization to promote violence prevention and to work together to prevent future incidents from occurring. SAVE provides education about the effects and consequences of violence and helps provide safe activities for students, parents and communities.
