National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere Names Local Student to 2015-2016 Youth Advisory Board Jordan German, Junior at Georgetown High School, Named to National Advisory Board

Georgetown, SC. (June 22, 2015) — Carleen Wray, executive director of the National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE), has announced that Jordan German, a junior at Georgetown High School, has been selected as one of ten high school students from across the country to serve on the 2015-2016 National SAVE Youth Advisory Board (YAB). Members of the board are meeting in Raleigh NC to participate in a National Youth Leadership Institute on July 16-19 2015 where they will be trained as presenters and spokespersons for the national organization. At the institute, YAB members will also plan the 2016 National Youth Summit to be held in Raleigh NC on March 12, 2016.

Ms. German volunteers 15 hours every week with Optimism Preventive Services, Inc. as a youth leader and peer mentor. Jordan also has a part-time job, is a member of her school's varsity cheerleading team, and is very active in her church. Additionally, Jordan is a member of Honor Society and the Science club at her high school.

Jordan's SAVE chapter is community based which gives her the opportunity to work with both her community and school. Jordan served as her chapter's Secretary and has been elected to serve as the 2015-2016 President. This will be Jordan's second year on the Youth Advisory Board. As a YAB member, Jordan wants to continue to inspire and most importantly recruit more youth to join SAVE.

Members of the YAB will develop their leadership skills through participation in training sessions, discussions of best practices for school violence prevention and the practice of educational activities for sharing with other SAVE students. They will create goals for the year as well as a proactive action plan to combat violence through the implementation of the three essential elements of SAVE: crime prevention, conflict management and service projects.

SAVE is a student-run, student-initiated public nonprofit violence prevention organization with over 2,000 chapters in 48 states and more than 230,000 members in elementary, middle, high schools, colleges and communities nationwide.

About the National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere:

SAVE started at West Charlotte High School in Charlotte, N.C. in 1989 following the tragic death of a student who was trying to break up a fight at an off-campus party. Students met first to console each other, then as an organization to promote violence prevention and to work together to prevent future incidents from occurring. SAVE provides education about the effects and consequences of violence and helps provide safe activities for students, parents and communities.
