Mayor Of Ocean Springs, Miss., Declares May National Teen Safe Driving Month
Mayor Connie Moran Presents Proclamation To Ocean Springs High School SAVE Chapter

OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss. – The mayor of Ocean Springs, Connie M. Moran, presented a proclamation at Ocean Springs High School on May 17 declaring May as National Teen Safe Driving Month in the city. Mayor Moran was joined by Ocean Springs High School's Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE) chapter advisor Carolyn Boyd, SAVE student representatives and local Allstate agent Ginny Conn for the presentation. The mayor and SAVE students also signed an "X The TXT" banner and made a pledge to not text while driving. Throughout the month of May, SAVE and AllState are partnering with Mississippi high school SAVE chapters to encourage students to adopt safe driving habits.

QUOTES:

"I am proud to declare May as National Teen Safe Driving Month in the city of Ocean Springs," said Mayor Moran. "It has been a pleasure working with the Ocean Springs High School SAVE chapter to promote safe driving among teens in our city and to see how they have positively impacted the lives of their peers."

ABOUT STUDENTS AGAINST VIOLENCE EVERYWHERE (SAVE):

Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE) is a public nonprofit organization striving to decrease the potential for violence in our schools and communities by promoting meaningful student involvement, education and service opportunities in efforts to provide safer environments for youth. SAVE is a unique and powerful approach to youth safety because it recognizes the role that young people can take in making schools and communities safer. The organization envisions that schools and communities will be safer and more secure, free of fear, and conducive to learning as a result of students being actively involved in meaningful violence prevention efforts.
