Mayor Of Biloxi, Miss. Declares May National Teen Safe Driving Month
*Mayor A.J. Holloway Presents Proclamation To Biloxi High School
Chapter Of Students Against Violence Everywhere*

BILOXI, Miss. – The mayor of Biloxi, A.J. Holloway, has declared May as National Teen Safe Driving Month in the city. The proclamation was received by Biloxi High School’s Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE) advisor and school resource officer, Daisy Watson at the city council meeting on May 17. With the help of a generous grant from the Allstate Foundation, the Biloxi High School SAVE chapter will host safe driving campaigns and educational activities during the month of May and throughout the year encouraging teens to make safe decisions while driving.

QUOTES:

“It is very important that the citizens of Biloxi get involved with SAVE’s teen safe driving initiative,” said Mayor Holloway. “With increased awareness and community involvement we can help save lives, reduce injuries and deaths related to traffic accidents, and create a safer school environment for our teens.”

ABOUT STUDENTS AGAINST VIOLENCE EVERYWHERE (SAVE):

Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE) is a public nonprofit organization striving to decrease the potential for violence in our schools and communities by promoting meaningful student involvement, education and service opportunities in efforts to provide safer environments for youth. SAVE is a unique and powerful approach to youth safety because it recognizes the role that young people can take in making schools and communities safer. The organization envisions that schools and communities will be safer and more secure, free of fear, and conducive to learning as a result of students being actively involved in meaningful violence prevention efforts.
