Biloxi High junior named to SAVE advisory board

Carleen Wray, executive director of the National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE), has announced that Rose Le, a junior at Biloxi High School, has been selected as one of 10 high school students from across the country to serve on the 2015-16 National SAVE Youth Advisory Board (YAB).

Le has received the Biloxi High Perfect Attendance award and the school's Going Above and Beyond award, held leadership positions such as vice president of her SAVE chapter, vice president of the Builders Club, president of the National Honor Society and vice president of the sophomore class and has been a member of the Spanish Club and the school's track team.

SAVE is a student-run and student-initiated public nonprofit violence prevention organization with more than 2,000 chapters in 48 states and more than 230,000 members in elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, colleges and communities.
