

SAVE Benefit Gala set for Feb. 6 at OSHS

A benefit gala for the Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE) Club of Ocean Springs High School (OSHS) will be held at 6 p.m., Friday, Feb. 6, at Ocean Springs High School Auditorium.

Featured will be Mississippi Gulf Coast performers including J.T. Anglin, David Delk, Karen Abernathy, Natalya Petrovska and Leah Rogers with guest accompanist Guy Bowering. Student performers include Noah Anglin, Stayce Ingram Krystal Triplett and Tyra Patterson.

Tickets are $5 for adults and

$2 for students and will be available at the door. A variety of music will be performed from opera and country to pop. Light refreshments will be served and a silent auction also will be held.

Money raised will help send SAVE members to the National SAVE Summit in Raleigh, N.C. on March 21.

SAVE was established 26 years ago by teachers Angela Bynum and Gary Weart at West Charlotte High School in North Carolina in memory of student Alex Orange, who was shot and killed while trying to break up a fight at a party. SAVE colors are orange and purple. Orange was Alex's favorite color and purple is the international symbol of peace.

SAVE is an anti-violence organization that fights against needless death in youth whether it be at school, behind the wheel of an automobile or at home. The OSHS SAVE sponsor is Carolyn Boyd.

For more information, call Noah Anglin at 233-8256. Ocean Springs High School is located at 6701 Old Spanish Trail.